D.O. No. OI-15013/02/2010-DS

May 21, 2010

Please refer to letter No. CTC(OCI)/10/2010/F.II (received here on 12.05.2010) from Shri D.J. Shah, Under Secretary, in response to my D.O. letter of even number dated 05.04.2010. The clarifications sought by the Home Department are provided below, ad-seriatim:-

1. 'Nativity Certificate' is essentially in the nature of a 'Domicile Certificate and is designed to establishing the Indian-origin of a PIO-resident abroad. The 'Nativity Certificate' would be accepted by Indian Missions/Posts abroad and the Ministry of Home Affairs, as adequate primary documentary proof, in support of an application by a PIO for registration as an OCI. As stated at para 1(i) of my D.O. letter of even number, dated 05.4.2010, this 'Nativity Certificate' is required to be issued by the State Government, under the signatures of an officer not below the rank of a District Collector/Magistrate.

2. As explained above, the 'Nativity Certificate' could be adduced by a PIO, as primary evidence in support of his application to a Indian Mission/Post abroad or MHA for registration as an OCI. Your attention is drawn to sub-paras (ii) & (iii) of para 1 of my D.O. letter ibid which casts certain obligations on the State Government, before proceeding to issue a 'Nativity Certificate'.

X

These include the institution of an appropriate mechanism in place to verify and establish the Indian nativity of an applicant with a view to ensure that he indeed meets the requirements prescribed in Section 7 A of the Citizenship Act for registration as an OCI.

3. It is presumed that PIO-applicant seeking 'Nativity Certificate' is doing so because he does not have any valid documentary proof, to be adduced as primary evidence, in support of his application for registration as an OCI. His application for issue of a registration as an OCI, duly supported by the 'Nativity Certificate' obtained by him for the purpose, would ordinarily be accepted, where upon he would be so registered, if found eligible, and issued a OCI Registration Card. The 'Nativity Certificate' is not expected to be used for any other purpose.
 4. While no time limit has been prescribed, there should not be an inordinate delays in the issue of the document, provoking the PIO-applicant to lodge complaint with this Ministry or some other authority. A three-month period, from the date of receipt of an application by the State Government for issue of a 'Nativity Certificate' could be accepted as reasonable.
 5. It is confirmed that if a PIO-applicant is a citizen of Pakistan or Bangladesh or has ever held the nationality of either of these two countries, he would not be entitled to be issued a 'Nativity Certificate'.
2. A copy of this reply is being endorsed to all other State Governments for their information and guidance.

Yours sincerely,

Subject: Overseas Citizenship of India (OCI) Scheme.

Sir

I am directed to refer to your D.O. letter No. OI-15013/2/2010/DS dated the 5th April 2010 addressed to our Chief Secretary on the subject cited above and to request you to clarify the following points with reference to nativity certificate.

1. What is meant by nativity certificate? Can it be treated as domicile/nationality/Citizenship Certificate? As known, nationality/Citizenship Certificate are issued by Government of India only and domicile certificates are issued at Taluka/Tehsil level by Revenue officers. This nativity certificate is to be issued at Collector level at all districts. State Government has not to issue the same? This may please be confirmed.
2. What is the use of nativity certificate and whether it should be issued straightaway on receipt of application for the same after due verification at field level.
3. If this is issued, is it necessary for the applicant to register himself/herself as OCI or to obtain OCI card from authority concerned?
4. It is presumed, no time limit for issue of nativity certificate is fixed. This may be confirmed.
5. This is not applicable to Pak and Bangladesh nationals as OCI scheme is not applicable to them. This may be confirmed.

The guidance/clarification on above points may please be issued at the earliest so that there is no scope of misunderstanding in implementation of the scheme.

Yours faithfully

(D.J. SHAH)

Under Secretary to the Government of Gujarat
